Saint of the Week

S. Rita of Cascia – Feast Day May 22nd

Rita was born in Cascia, Italy 1381 and as a young girl often visited the convent hoping to be a Nun one day. However, her parents had promised her hand in Marriage, so Rita had to accept the decision. She had twin boys but when they were teenagers her husband was killed in an ambush; shortly after her boys also died from natural causes.

Alone at 36, Rita established peace in Cascia, which assured her entry into the convent where she remained for 40 years.

When Rita was about 60 years old, while praying, a small wound appeared on her forehead like a thorn from Christ's crown had penetrated her flesh.

For the next 15yrs she was in constant pain; bedridden for the last 4 surviving only on the Eucharist.

She died May 22nd and among her final words were "Remain obedient to the Holy Roman Church"
