Saint of the Week
S. Elizabeth of Hungary

Elizabeth was born on July 7th to the Hungarian King Andrew II. Her Mother was murdered when she was 6 yrs old so she sought peace with Prayer.
Although Elizabeth was part of the royal court, she began to lead a simple life and would feed the poor with bread. When she was 21yrs old she founded a hospital in honour of St. Francis and personally attended the ill and ministered to the sick and poor.
Elizabeth died at the tender age of 24 and immediately miraculous healings began to occur at her graveside; which resulted in her Canonisation.

Feast day: November 17th
