Saint of the Week

S. Nicholas

Nicholas was the only child to parents who died in an epidemic when he was young and left him their fortune. He grew up with his Uncle who was a Bishop, and ordained Nicholas, who soon became a Bishop himself.

Nick used his entire inheritance to assist the needy, sick and suffering. He would also give the poor children presents at Christmas which became a tradition around the world.

Nicholas was also known for his miracles before and after his death and was known as 'The protector of all in trouble and need'
He died a Martyr and his burial site became a place of Pilgrimage.

Feast day November 6th

Patron: Children, Students, Repentant prisoners, Sailors and Pharmacist are among the many.

ADVENT

Christmas card for 'World Gifts'

There is a Christmas Card in each church to send our greetings to other Parishioners. If you could sign it and make a contribution, this will be used to buy a Gift for someone in need in the world. (a school starter set, a clucky chicken...) Have a look in the leaflet.

Walk with me!

The Advent booklets with thoughts and prayers for every day to Christmas are available at £1.00 each.

Stars

For the trees will be available through Advent. Write a name or an intention or prayer on them and they will hang on the trees through the Christmas period. Donations for these go to help with the cost of the Christmas flowers.

Please take a sheet with the Advent information on. These are at the back of the churches,

Can You Help??

We need some people to help with 'counting collections'. It is necessary to have at least two people involved with this; for company, accuracy and protection. Please see Fr. Kevin if you are able to help.

Facebook!

Our Facebook Page will be live from this weekend! We do need somebody familiar with Facebook to keep events and dates up-to-date. Is this you?
Please see either Fr. Kevin or one of the IT Group.

If you would like to join the page, please make a request on-line!

A Parish Twit!

Yes, we do need a Parish Twit! If you know what it means then it might be just the job for you!
