Saint of the Week

S. Bernadette

Bernadette was one of 9 children and born in Lourdes. As a child gathering firewood the Blessed Mother appeared to her 17 times and urged to pray for sinners and build a church. She was also told to dig into the mud and a spring would develop; many healings have since occurred from the water.

As Bernadette got older she became a Nun, but was not in good health and died aged 35 on 16th April.

Her last words were "Blessed Mary, Mother of God, pray for me, a poor sinner".

Her body has since been exhumed 3 times; each time intact and can be seen in the Chapel of St. Bernadette in Nevers.
