Saint of the Week
S. Pius V
Pius was born in Italy to a poor family and was a shepherd until he was 14yrs old. He then joined the Dominicans, was ordained and then taught Theology before he became a bishop.
At 62years old he was made Pope and was best known for his publication of the Roman Catechism, the revised Roman Breviary and the Roman Missal. However, he made the ill advised decision to excommunicate Queen Elizabeth I, which only worsened the plight of British Catholics.
On one occasion a deadly poison was put on the feet of the crucifix which Pius would kiss with daily devotion, but when he knelt down the feet detached themselves from the cross.
He died peacefully aged 68.
