Thought for the Week
 Life is far too important to be taken seriously.
 Oscar Wilde

Saint of the Week
S. Stanislaus
 Stanislaus was born to noble parents so had a good education and was ordained shortly afterwards. He became well known for his preaching so was much sought after. It was a Bishop who spotted his talent and made him a Canon and his Spiritual advisor. He was so successful he soon became a Bishop. However, he denounced the king's cruelties and injustices, especially his kidnapping of the beautiful wife of a nobleman. Stanislaus then excommunicated the King and stopped services at the Cathedral. Shortly afterwards while Stanislaus was saying Mass the king himself entered and killed him.
Feast day April 11th
