Saint of the Week

S. David Lewis

David Lewis was born in Abergavenny and was the youngest of 9 children. After both his parents died, he entered the English College in Rome to become a Catholic Priest.

Aged 26 he was ordained, and sent to Wales, but only for a short while until he was recalled to Rome to take up the role of Spiritual advisor at his old college.

However, the mission David had founded in South Wales petitioned for his return, so he came back. David worked tirelessly with the poor and needy for the next 30 years until his arrest at Llantarnam preparing to say Mass.

He died a Martyr aged 63 at Usk on 27th August and was the last Welshman to become a Jesuit priest for 300 years until the 20th century.

Thank you to everyone in the Parish who have supported Premananda Orphanage over the years by coming to fundraising events, buying raffle tickets, supporting collections and by donations that are given. Your help is really appreciated.

I'd particularly like to thank those who sponsor children. Some people do this by paying monthly and others prefer to make an annual donation. If you do sponsor a child and pay annually then the £200 payment is now due.

There will be information appearing here over the next few weeks along with a question for you. Would you like to be invested with the Miraculous Medal?

It involves a commitment to Our Lady; to prayer; to good works.

We will discuss the commitment during September starting on Our Lady's Birthday, 8th September. If we have a number of people who are up to the challenge then we will agree a date for the Investing.

Interested? Search for some information online, or in books. You are always welcome to ask me any questions you may have.
