Discussion After Mass!
'Looking at the Creed' Wednesday, 18th September in Risca after 10.00am Mass Friday, 20th September in Pont after the 10.30am Mass.

Readers and Eucharistic Ministers We need to arrange a meeting in Newbridge. This will be arranged for September so please see your coordinator if there are dates/days you cannot attend.
There will be a formal enrolment of Readers after training.

Shoe Box Appeal
The annual shoe box appeal is about to begin. Start thinking about filling one of these boxes (or more) to send away in early November. Boxes will be available shortly. If you are not able to fill a box but would like to contribute to the appeal, there are ways to help. Please ask for details.
Thank you.

The Miraculous Medal

On the night of July 18, 1830, Catherine saw Maty seated in the choir of the motherhouse chapel. Catherine recorded the incident, which she called, "July Conversation with the Most Blessed Virgin, from 11:30 in the evening of the 18th until 1:30 in the morning of the 19th, St. Vincent's Day." During this time, Mary spoke to her and made several predictions which would happen. Mary said, "My child, the good God wishes to charge you with a mission. You will have much to suffer, but you will rise above these sufferings by reflecting that what you do is for the glory of God. You will know what the good God wants. You will be tormented until you have told him who is charged with directing you. You will be contradicted but, do not fear, you will have grace. Tell with confidence all that passes within you; tell it with simplicity. Have confidence. Do not be afraid."

On November 27, 1830, the Mary again appeared to Catherine: "The Virgin was standing. She was a medium height and clothed all in white. Her dress was of the whiteness of the dawn, made in the style called 'a la vierge,' that is, high neck and plain sleeves. A white veil covered her head and fell on either side to her feet. Under the veil, her hair, in coils, was bound with a fillet ornamented with lace, about three centimetres in height or of two fingers' breadth, without pleats, and resting lightly on the hair. Her face was sufficiently exposed, indeed exposed very well, and so beautiful that it seems to me impossible to express her ravishing beauty. Her feet rested on a white globe, that is to say half a globe, or at least I saw only half. There was also a serpent, green in colour with yellow spots. The hands were raised to the height of the stomach and held, in a very relaxed manner and as if offering it to God, a golden ball surmounted with a little golden cross, which represented the world.... more next week

Saint of the Week

S. Matthew

Matthew was a tax collector – a hated profession during the time of Christ. It was while he was working at a collection booth that Christ came to him and said "follow Me"

So Matthew did, and became a Disciple.
Matthew wrote an account of his life with Christ and it became the first Gospel in the New Testament. Originally, He wanted his writing to convince people that Jesus was the Messiah, because everyone was expecting a militant Messiah brandishing a sword.

Feast day 21st September

Patron: Bankers, Accountants, Tax collectors and Civil servants
