The Year of the Word 'The God Who Speaks'

Saint Augustine was one of Jerome's opponents. He suggested that, by basing his Latin translation on the Hebrew Bible rather than on the Septuagint, Jerome was driving a wedge between Christians of the East and West since the Greek-speaking Christians of the East were still using the Septuagint.

To illustrate the folly of Jerome's approach, Augustine told him the tale of a bishop from Tripoli who authorized Jerome's new translation for use in his church. When the people heard the Old Testament lesson from Jonah, it was so unfamiliar that they protested the bishop's innovation by rioting in the streets. Augustine saw this as proof that Jerome's "Hebrew" version was a serious mistake.

Fortunately, not all Christians reacted as did Augustine and the people of Tripoli, but it did take a long time before the Church in the West became accustomed to Jerome's translation. While no riots appear to have been caused in our century by new translations, many people do feel uncomfortable and complain when they hear familiar biblical stories rendered in unfamiliar words.

The Year of the Word also celebrates the book by Pope Benedict XVI 'Verbum Domini'. It is worth reading and I encourage you all to do so, especially those who have ministries in the parish! There are copies available in the churches at a cost of £3.95. Do get your hands on a copy

Saint of the Week

S. Sylvester

Sylvester was born in Rome and at a young age was put under the care of a Priest to educate him.

He became the 33rd Pope of the Catholic Church and reigned for 24 years and 11 months before he died on 31st December, aged approximately 85 years old.

While Sylvester was Pope he converted and Baptised Constantine, who was the first Roman Emperor to become a Christian, and miraculously cured him of leprosy.

Feast day 31st December

St Matthew's Gospel

We are in 'Year A' in the Sunday Reading cycle. That means that through this year, 'The Year of the Word', we will be hearing mainly from St. Matthew. How much work is it to write a Gospel? How long does it take? What about St. Jerome having to translate it?

Let's find out 😊

As a Parish we will write out the Gospel according to Matthew.

There will be more details soon but, basically, each person or family will write out a verse/paragraph, onto our version of a scroll. By the end of the year we will have the Gospel According to Matthew as written out by the Parishioners of Our Lady of Peace Parish!

Details to follow!!

Any thoughts, comments or suggestions are most welcome. Either write them down, tell Fr. Kevin or Dcn Pat, or mention it to a member of the PAC.

Thought for the Week

An industrious person seldom has a busy tongue.

A word to consider:- 'FAMILY !....

"In the beginning was the Word: the Word was with God and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things came to be, not one thing had its being but through him." John 1:1-3
